Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 ▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 ▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____
Add the amounts above and enter the total here		3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

▶ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2022 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $25,900 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er), $19,400 if you're head of household, $12,950 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

PERSONAL DATA

Are any of the following situations applicable to you?

- Convicted of, or pled guilty or "no contest" to, a misdemeanor or felony
- Arrested and charged with any misdemeanor or felony
- Sued in a civil action regarding the death of/personal injury/intentional damage to any person

If yes, please provide details below concerning the nature of the incident:

NOTE: Answering "Yes" to the previous questions is not an automatic bar to employment. Factors such as age at the time of the offense, seriousness and nature of the violations, relatedness to the job sought, and evidence of rehabilitation will be taken into account. However, please be advised that a misstatement or omission in answering these questions may be grounds for disciplinary action. Payroll will not be processed until this agreement is completed and received by INTEGRITY EMPLOYEE LEASING, INC.

WORKSITE AGREEMENT
(CLIENT RETAINED WORKERS' COMPENSATION/CARVE OUT)

I, the undersigned individual, in consideration of my being placed in a professional employer organization ("PEO") relationship with the Integrity Company, that is signatory to this Agreement as set forth on the signature page herein (hereafter referred to as "INTEGRITY") acknowledge and agree to the following:

Client (as defined below) has elected to utilize its own workers' compensation insurance policy and not the workers' compensation coverage of INTEGRITY. Accordingly, if you are injured on the job your workers' compensation claim will be handled exclusively by Client and Client's insurance carrier. By signing below you confirm that you understand and agree that at no time will you be covered by the workers' compensation insurance policy of INTEGRITY.

(1) At all times during my relationship with INTEGRITY, I understand and agree that I will remain an employee of the client company for which I am working ("Client") that has contracted with INTEGRITY regarding my services in a PEO relationship and, to the extent allowed by law, Client will continue to have sole and exclusive control over my day-to-day job duties and over the worksite(s) where I perform services. Additionally, to the extent allowed by law, Client will continue to provide all onsite supervision, including, but not limited to, determining my job assignments and training requirements and evaluating my performance. Also, to the extent allowed by law, Client will determine my job duties, rate of pay, hours worked, continued employment opportunities, and other terms and conditions of my employment;

(2) I understand and agree that my status with INTEGRITY is at-will and that either INTEGRITY or I can terminate our PEO relationship at any time. I further understand and agree that there is no contract of employment which exists between INTEGRITY and me and I understand and agree that INTEGRITY will not become a party to any contract of employment and/or any restrictive covenant/non-competition agreement which I have already entered into or which I may in the future enter into with Client. I agree that any such agreement and contract entered into with Client by me shall remain in full force and effect and are not affected by the professional employer organization relationship between Client and INTEGRITY. Additionally, I understand and agree my at-will status with INTEGRITY does not change the employment status I had with Client prior to the existence of the professional employer relationship between INTEGRITY and Client and that INTEGRITY is not responsible for any contractual obligations which may exist between Client and me;

(3) I understand and agree that I am performing services within a professional employer organization relationship where the duties and responsibilities applicable to me are set forth in a service agreement entered into between Client and INTEGRITY;

(4) I understand and agree that INTEGRITY has assumed such responsibility to pay me wages as is required by applicable law. I also understand and agree that, unless otherwise required by law if INTEGRITY does not receive payment from Client for services which I perform as a utilized individual, INTEGRITY may, where allowed by law, pay me the applicable minimum wage (or the legally required minimum salary) for any such pay period, and I agree to this method of compensation. Additionally, I understand and agree that Client remains an employer of me during my PEO relationship with INTEGRITY and Client at all times ultimately remains obligated to pay me my regular hourly rate of pay if I am a non-exempt individual and to pay me my full salary if I am an exempt individual if INTEGRITY is not fully paid by Client for services that I render;

(5) I also understand and agree that, unless otherwise required by law, where payment for the following items have not been received by INTEGRITY from Client, INTEGRITY does not assume responsibility for payment of bonuses, commissions, severance pay, deferred compensation, profit sharing, vacation, sick, or other paid time off pay, compensation, benefit, or for any other payment not required by law, in any form, or for any other similar type of payment (except as provided at paragraph (4) above), unless INTEGRITY has specifically, in a written agreement entered into with me, adopted Client's obligation to pay me such compensation or benefit (INTEGRITY does assume this responsibility where such payment has been received from Client encompassing such items regarding me);

(6) In recognition of the fact that any work-related injuries which might be sustained by me are covered by state workers' compensation statutes, and to avoid the circumvention of such state statutes which may result from suits against the customers or clients of INTEGRITY or against INTEGRITY based on the same injury or injuries, and to the extent permitted by law, I hereby waive and forever release any rights I might have to make claims or bring suit against any client or customer of INTEGRITY and/or against INTEGRITY for damages based upon injuries which are covered under such workers' compensation statutes. In the event of a work-related injury, I understand and agree that, to the extent allowed by law, my sole remedy lies in coverage under Clients workers' compensation policy;

(7) I understand and agree that if I am injured on the job, even if the injury is minor or even if I do not want treatment, I must still immediately report it to my supervisor. I also agree to comply with any lawful drug testing policy which may be adopted, and I specifically agree to post-accident drug testing in any situation where it is allowed by law;

(8) In addition, I also agree that if at any time during my employment at Client I am subjected to any type of discrimination, including discrimination because of race, sex, sexual orientation, harassment of any type, disability, color, age, genetic information, national origin, citizenship status, religion, retaliation, veteran status, military status, or union status, or if I am subjected to any type of retaliation or harassment including sexual harassment, I will immediately contact an appropriate person of Client. In most instances, this appropriate person will be the President of Client. Should I choose not to contact Client for any reason, I may contact INTEGRITY's Human Resources Director at 1-941-625-0623 for the limited purpose of having INTEGRITY, at its option, and not as an employer, but as a possible facilitator, try in its sole discretion, to attempt to facilitate a resolution if requested and agreed to by all parties;

(9) I understand and agree that Client has sole and exclusive control over my day-to-day job duties and Client has sole and exclusive control over the job site at which, or from which, I perform my services and that INTEGRITY only reserves and retains such rights and authority as is required by applicable law. I agree that INTEGRITY does not have actual control over my workplace and, as such, is not in a position to end or remediate any discrimination, harassment, unsafe working condition, retaliation, or wrongdoing which may be occurring. The responsibility to resolve and/or end such inappropriate conduct or unsafe working condition rests with Client, however, INTEGRITY may attempt to facilitate a resolution;

(10) I understand and agree that due to licensure and workers' compensation restrictions applicable to professional employer organizations, if I am accepted as a utilized individual of INTEGRITY, I am expressly prohibited from performing any work outside the state in which I am currently performing services for Client ("Home State") during my status as a utilized individual except as may be allowed pursuant to the workers' compensation policy provided to me by Client or except as may be allowed in writing by Client and the applicable workers' compensation carrier;

(11) If I work outside the Home State for Client or for anyone else without first securing this approval as set forth at (10), I understand and agree that I will no longer be in a professional employer organization relationship my professional employer organization relationship with INTEGRITY will be considered immediately terminated upon commencement of my trip outside the Home State to perform work where prior approval has not been received as set forth herein;

(12) I understand and agree that, to the extent allowed by law, any obligation of INTEGRITY ceases when INTEGRITY's professional employer organization agreement with Client terminates;

(13) I understand and agree if I am eligible for any benefits it is my responsibility (and the responsibility of any family members/ dependents who wish to participate) to timely submit all required forms and information;

(14) To the extent allowable by law, by signing this Agreement, I assign to INTEGRITY, my right to assert a priority wage claim against Client under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a)(3) in the event that a Bankruptcy Petition is filed under Title 7 and or Title 11 of the United States Code by or on behalf of Client; and

(15) Should I sign this form and/or complete INTEGRITY's utilized individual paperwork and never be accepted as a utilized individual of INTEGRITY, this form shall be null and void.

(16) I and INTEGRITY and Client agree, to the fullest extent of applicable law, that any claim or legal dispute between me and INTEGRITY and/or between me and Client arising out of or relating to my employment, including the voluntary or involuntary termination of my employment for whatever reason and including all claims or actions brought pursuant to local, state and/or federal law regarding payment of wages, tort, discrimination of any type, harassment, and retaliation, except where specifically prohibited by law, shall be submitted by the aggrieved party to the American Arbitration Association, for final and binding resolution through arbitration by a single arbitrator. This Agreement covers all claims and legal disputes but does not apply to those that cannot under applicable law be resolved in arbitration, including employee benefit claims under workers' compensation laws (although retaliation claims are covered by this Agreement), claims for unemployment benefits, and claims brought under the National Labor Relations Act. The parties expressly consent to having the arbitrator resolve all aspects of the dispute, including any questions relating to arbitrability or jurisdiction. Unless both parties agree to another location, all arbitration hearings will take place in the ADR location nearest to my place of current or former employment. All arbitration hearings will be confidential and subject to the rules and procedures of the Employment Law Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. INTEGRITY or Client shall pay the cost of any filing fees and the arbitrator's fee, but each side shall be responsible for their own costs and attorneys' fees involving the arbitration issues, unless otherwise provided in the arbitrator's decision or unless otherwise required by law. The arbitrator shall have authority to grant the same remedies as may be available under applicable local, state and/or federal, law—including authority to grant attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party as would be allowed under such law—and will render a reasoned written decision based on the evidence and the law, which shall not be subject to an appeal or judicial proceedings except as allowed by the Federal Arbitration Act. However, the parties may seek judicial intervention in aid of enforcement of this Agreement or any final decision rendered by the arbitrator. I understand that nothing in this section is intended to discourage or prohibit voluntary mediation of any dispute. I further understand and agree that there is no right to a trial by jury or to litigate in court with respect to any claim or legal dispute covered under this Agreement, such rights being waived by me under this Agreement.

(17) Additionally, I agree that I have no right or authority and I hereby waive any right or authority for any claim and/or legal dispute within the scope of this Agreement to be brought, heard, or arbitrated as a class or collective action, or in a representative or private attorney general capacity on behalf of a class of persons or the general public (even if those claims are similar or related in time or scope to mine). Thus, I understand that my signature on this Agreement will be considered, to the fullest extent of the law, a waiver by me of all class action claims which I would have been entitled to bring or participate in, absent this Agreement. I understand that nothing in this Agreement prevents me from filing a complaint with or participating in any investigation involving any governmental agency, or from exercising rights granted to me under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act and/or other applicable law.
